

Author Laura Kamoie on January 24

In anticipation of “Hamilton The Musical” coming to Columbus, New York Times bestselling author Laura Kamoie will speak about the history behind and writing of her new novel My Dear Hamilton: A Novel about Eliza Schuyler Hamilton, who was a patriot, wife, widow, and warrior in her husband's quest for a more perfect union. Q&A and book signing to follow. Fundamentals Bookstore will sell Ms. Kamoie's novel that evening at the event.

Join us at the Orange branch library on Thursday January 24, 2019 at 7pm. Tickets are on sale at <https://mydearhamilton.eventbrite.com>. Fewer than half of the tickets remain! Check our website, Facebook page or Twitter for more details. Friends of DCDL members, check your email for the ticket discount code.

Save these Dates for 2019

We would love to give you the entire 2019 calendar, but we are still hard at work planning the details of some new events (and returning favorites). Stay tuned to our website, newsletters and emails for event details. But for now, save the following dates on your calendar:

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| April 6 | Young Writers Workshop |
| May 4 | Kentucky Derby Fundraiser
at Safari Events Center |
| August 3 | Teacher Books and Supply
Sale |
| October 12 | Young Writers Workshop |
| October 12-13 | Art Fair (see “Donations”) |

Donations: Art, books, DVDs and more

We are holding an Art Fair in October. This event requires a lot of planning, and a lot of art! We are collecting art donations now; please contact Judy Lynch at membership@delawarelibraryfriends.org for questions about donating.

*****📖📖📖**

Your donations of gently used, clean books and audio-visual materials are welcomed at all four DCDL locations throughout the year. Please, no grime, mildew or bugs. If you don't want to touch it or sniff it, send it to the trash, not the library.

Bargain Book Sales for 2019

While our calendar has many newer, fun events, we know that many people still love our bargain book sales. Mark your calendar for the following dates:
