

Eric Litwin in Concert

On Saturday, June 9, the Friends of the DCDL were honored to present Eric Litwin, a #1 New York Times Best Selling Author. He is the original author of four Pete the Cat books as well as The Nuts and Groovy Joe. He appeared at the Gordon Field House at Ohio Wesleyan University to the delight of over 900 children and adults during two concerts that day. Mr. Litwin entertained the audience with his brand of “interactive music and literacy”.

Plan now for Coffee with George

“Coffee with George” gives you a chance to meet library staff, learn about future DCDL plans, ask questions and chat with George Needham, our entertaining and personable DCDL Director. It may even include a tour of the back room operations! Refreshments are provided.

“Coffee with George” is now open to the public, and no RSVP is required! Bring a friend and join us on either:

Monday, Sept 10 at 7 pm at Powell Branch

Tuesday, Sept 11 at 7 pm at Ostrander Branch

Additional “Coffees” will be held this fall at Orange Branch (Oct 22) and Delaware Main library (Nov 1).

Where do the “leftovers” go?

Young Writers Workshop on Oct 27

DCDL presents a half-day session for young writers to explore the basics of writing and illustrating their own story.

Led by Ohio-based illustrator, comic book author and children’s educational presenter, Steve Harpster, the Young Writers Workshop will guide children ages 5-7 in the development of their first published book, during a dynamic and fun session.

Each child’s unique story will be professionally printed and bound and put into circulation within the DCDL catalog. The children will also receive a copy to keep.

The two workshops are on October 27 at Orange Branch, time TBD. Pre-registration is required via Eventbrite. Additional info will be available in the September/October Friends newsletter and on Facebook at: @FriendsoftheDelawareLibrary.
